*The only right way is the straight
and narrow way.*

Welcome! We pray that you are blessed through the hearing of God's Word and His assurance of sins forgiven. May our lives respond in praise and thanksgiving.

This Sunday's Services:

- 9.00am Gnadenfrei Marananga HC - with Pastor Eugene
St Peter's Greenock - Lay Reading with Kylie R. and Michelle M.
10.30am Nain HC - with Pastor Eugene

Opening:

We have been saved by grace because we believed.

We didn't save ourselves; it was a gift from God.

In Christ Jesus, God made us new people

so that we would spend our lives doing the good things he had already planned for us to do. (Ephesians 2:8,10 ERV)

Psalm: 107:1-3,20-22

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his love endures forever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story –
those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,
those he gathered from the lands,
from east and west, from north and south.

He sent out his word and healed them;
he rescued them from the grave.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love
and his wonderful deeds for mankind.

Let them sacrifice thank offerings
and tell of his works with songs of joy.

Glory to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forevermore. Amen.

*Give thanks
- TO THE - Lord
FOR HE IS GOOD
- Psalm 107:1 -*

Prayer of the Day:

Let us pray for faith in Jesus our Saviour.

Loving Father, when we were captive in the darkness of sin and death, your Son rescued us and brought us back to you. Teach us to trust in him and to live as your people, through Jesus our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Bible Readings:

Numbers 21:4-9 The snake of bronze in the desert.

Ephesians 2:1-10 Saved by grace through faith.

John 3:14-21 Jesus brings life and light to the world.

Message Theme & Text: 'Rescued and Repurposed' (Ephesians 2:1-10)

Offering Prayer:

Thank you, heavenly Father, for giving your Son so that we can have new life with you now and forever. Strengthen our faith in him. Guide us to live in the light of Christ, and to give ourselves in love to other people. Amen.

Notes On The Readings

Numbers 21:4-9: Evidence such as God's powerful deliverance of the Hebrews from slavery in Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, and the destruction of Pharaoh's army should have convinced them of their safety under his care. Yet repeated rebellion and continue criticism met his gracious providence. The punishment in today's reading brought death through snake bite. A bronze figure raised on a pole called for simple faith to overcome the consequence of sin and bring healing.

Ephesians 2:1-10: St Paul never had any doubts about the effective presence of a personal power of evil. Satan is active in that disobedience and sinful indulgence which brings about human separation from God. Be gratefully mindful therefore that God has by his own gracious miracle made us alive 'in Christ' when we were spiritually dead. We have been saved through our faith in Jesus; remember our own works have not saved us, but his eternally planned new creation has fitted us for a new life of holiness in his Son. That is part of his purpose.

John 3:14-21: You would think that if salvation is free simply through looking up to Jesus who was 'lifted up' for our sin that many more would be saved. Sadly that is not the case. John tells us that the last thing the Father wants is to condemn the world. Otherwise he would not have sent his Son. However, the personal love of sin and darkness, together with pride in not wanting it to be exposed, prevents all too many from receiving his light for their salvation. It then tragically becomes judgment instead. Our prime aim then is to bring our sin into the light of the Father to permit his salvation through his Son (which has removed our condemnation) to transform our deeds also into light.
